Dear Mr.

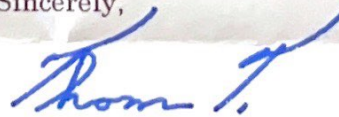

I am writing to update you on the status of your case with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. My office has received the following response:

"Thank you for your follow-up inquiry submitted on behalf of your constituent, FATIH [REDACTED], regarding their Form I-485 Application.

USCIS systems show that this case is currently being reviewed by an adjudicating officer. Your constituent should expect to receive a final decision or other form of correspondence within 30 days. If your constituent does not receive any notice within this timeframe, please contact us again for another status update."

My staff will keep you informed when additional updates become available. If you receive any direct communication from the agency, please contact Karen Ramirez in my Charlotte office at (704) [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Thom Tillis
U.S. Senator
